VOKKERO STAFF facilitates instant communication within the coaching and medical teams, together or separately. With fast, efficient decision-making, coaches' strategic choices are improved. In turn, medical staff interventions are optimized, to guarantee the health and safety of players.

Totally hands-free, VOKKERO STAFF is lightweight, easy-to-use and requires no installation. With its patented noise filter, it delivers excellent audio quality, even in the most disturbed environments. Its dedicated operating frequencies prevent interference with the referees' VOKKERO ELITE radio system.
